2024 KidneyCure Grants Announcement—Next Week!

ASN will announce the recipients of the 2024 KidneyCure research grants next week on Thursday, June 27. Look for the email announcement and follow ASN on social media to learn more about the new class of KidneyCure investigators.

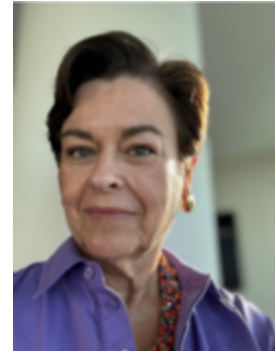

Grant Recipient Video: Matthew Lanktree

Check out our latest video interview with Matthew Lanktree, MD, PhD, FASN. Dr. Lanktree is an Associate Professor and Clinician Scientist at St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton, Population Health Research Institute, and McMaster University. He received a Carl W. Gottschalk Research Scholar Grant in 2023 and the Jared J. Grantham Research Fellowship award in 2017. In the interview, Dr. Lanktree discusses his work in multi-omics and genomics and hopes to apply his lab's "new findings to improve care of people with kidney diseases."

Donor Spotlight: Pascale Hammond Lane, MD, FASN

Pascale Hammond Lane, MD, FASN, is a devoted supporter of KidneyCure, giving monthly donations to the foundation dating back to 2016. A pediatric nephrologist, researcher, and educator, Dr. Lane most recently held the position of Nephrology Section Chief and Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center before retiring last year. An active member of ASN, Dr. Lane also served as Chair of the Media and Communications Committee from 2017 to 2020 and Editor-in-Chief of Kidney News from 2008 to 2014.
